"For I know I have plans for you,"
declares the LORD, "plans to prosper
you and not harm you, plans to give you hope and future."

~ Jeremiah 29:11

A letter from

President Corlis McGee

Dear Seniors,

It's hard to believe that four years have passed since the Class of 2011 first arrived on the Eastern Nazarene College campus. After four years of classes and coursework, studying and exams -- and hopefully, some fun in the form of ENC sporting events, concerts, plays, mission trips and other extracurricular activities -- the time has nearly arrived for the Class of 2011 to venture forth into the world.

As you look through the pages of this yearbook, you too may be reminded just how quickly time passes. It doesn't seem all that long ago to me, in fact, that I first arrived as a freshman at Trevecca Nazarene University. A first-generation college student, I recall being excited, nervous and altogether unsure about where my time at Trevecca would take me. I was blessed, however, to have an opportunity to meet and study with faculty members who encouraged me to move beyond my comfort zone and to consider graduate school and a teaching career.

That encouragement started me on a lifelong journey to pursue my calling in Nazarene higher education. It's important to note, however, that this was not a journey I initially planned to take. Rather, it was a journey that revealed itself one step at a time with God's help. Month after month, year after year, each step of obedience led to a new challenge and each challenge increased my knowledge and preparation for the next step of the journey the Lord had in mind.

Soon, you will set out from Eastern Nazarene, continuing your own journey on your own specific path. And like me, you may at times feel unsure of your ultimate destination. At those times, it is my hope you will always remember that wherever your journey takes you, you will not be traveling alone.

"Thy word is a lamp unto my feet and a light unto my path," Psams 119 reminds us. In the years to come, as the Lord lights your path, use all that you have learned here at ENC to reflect and magnify that light, so that others may also benefit from the caring, compassionate community of Christ that flourishes here at Eastern Nazarene College.

Blessings,

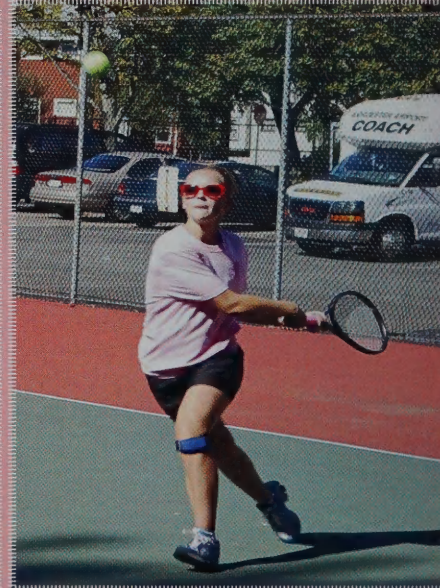

President Corlis McGee

BREAST CANCER AWARENESS

About 1 in 8 women in the United States will develop breast cancer over the course of her lifetime, and in 2010 alone, about 260,000 women will contract a form of breast cancer. However, since 1999 through 2006, the number of women affected by breast cancer has decreased on average by 2% each year, due to increased awareness, advances in treatment in the medical field, and earlier detection.

Eastern Nazarene College realized the impact that increased awareness can have in preventing this tragic disease, and decided to take action. The women's soccer, volleyball, and tennis team all wore pink jerseys and the men's soccer team wore pink armbands in an effort to raise awareness for breast cancer. The teams were able to raise $275 to donate to research for the cure to breast cancer.

PLAYING FOR A CURE

Dedication

Professor Eric Severson

Associate Professor of Philosophy

Ph. D, Boston University

M. Div., Nazarene Theological Seminary

M.A., B.A. Olivet Nazarene University

The 89th volume of the Eastern Nazarene College Nautilus is dedicated to Professor Eric Severson. For many of us students, passing Professor Severson's course, Living Issues, is one of the final hurdles to fulfilling our graduation requirements. Senioritis has already kicked in, coupled with senior projects and oral exams, the least of our concerns is this general education class.

For many undergraduates Living Issues is the first and last course they will take with Professor Severson, but the affect the course has on each student is profound.

"Living Issues is a class I really love to teach," says Severson

"The course gives me a chance to interact with students from many different disciplines and backgrounds."

Professor Severson graduated from Northwest Nazarene University in 1996 with a degree in Theological Studies. Severson later continued his educational odyssey, and graduated in 2000, at Nazarene Theological Seminary for a Masters of Divinity.

"Every single day I look at them [his children] I am overwhelmed with gratitude that they are part of my life."

The Class of 2011 is honored to dedicate our rendition of the yearbook to Professor Eric Severson.

"I think Professor Severson was one of the best professor's I've ever had."

- David Hoelschen-Thorne

"For having Professor Severson one measly time in my educational experience at ENC...he takes the cake as my favorite professor, without a doubt. His intellect, descriptive manner, and outward passion for teaching is refreshing."

One of the good memories I have at ENC is playing some good ole pick up ball with the fellas and ladies. Some days it would be real intense and others days it would be a time for all of us to get together and enjoy each other's company and laughter. - Kinson Theodoris

WOMEN'S SOCCER

6-9-2

The ENC women's soccer team suffered through a slew of injuries, which prohibited the club of making a run in the middle of their schedule. Through it all, the players fought and for the second consecutive year they broke school records for overall record, most points in conference, and goals against average.

This past season was the perfect end to my college soccer career. A foundation has been laid and I am sure the team will continue to progress as we have had over the past four years. We were successful in so many ways and built friendships that are sure to extend far beyond the soccer field.

WOMEN'S TENNIS

Women's Tennis started the season with a crop of young players looking to build a foundation for their young team. The season started out slow, with the team unable to close out some close contests, but they were able to overcome some difficult losses to string together some late victories at the end of the season shows promise that this young team has success on the horizon.

My 4 years at ENC have been some of the best years of my life. I just want to thank my family for everything and helping me with anything I have ever asked of them. Some of my greatest memories will come from playing volleyball and softball! Laura&Beppy you guys were with me all four years and I love you both so much! 2011SB-Freshmen I wish you were all here all four years with me! Torrance, BFFL, we've had some crazy times and I know there are many more to come. Humberto&Deangelo&John #freshmenyears wagg I love you guys sooo much and I don't know how I would have survived freshmen year without you..(literally). Jen&Lindsey You guys made my senior year so special and you two will be in my life FOREVER whether you like it or not!!! Mike&Noah You guys are hilarious and you brighten my day whenever you are around! Court&Mary&Elizabeth my sophomore year was amazing because of you three.. it was the hardest year of my life and you guys were always there for me and i couldn't ask for better friends! Ace,Shar,&Ray you guys are so funny and I cant wait to come back and watch you guys play!!! Do it big! Ja'na&Paige two out of my three successful roommates! Thank you for making living in these nasty dorms so amazing! I love you both! And lastly Juan, You are an amazing person and you have filled my life with such happiness and I know that you are going to amount to such great things in the future! I love you!

Peace Out ENC It's Been Real!

This last year as the Business Manager of the yearbook i was given an opportunity to reminisce over my last 4 years at ENC with friends. Over those 4 years i learned alot and made the best of friends. Times chilling in the cafe for hours or sneaking into the girls dorms. Experiences will never be forgotten. The class of 2011 will be considered a dynasty and will go down in history as ENC most successful class...GUARANTEED. I want to give a special S/O to my family, my friends, Zookrew,F2F, and D.C.

Being the layout designer for the yearbook was a great experience and a memorable one. I am happy to say I took part in the creation of such a distinguished commemorative. I am proud to say I attended ENC and wish the best of luck to the class of 2011. Special thank you to all of my family, friends, and anyone who has allowed me to enter their life. To the ENC Baseball program, it has been an experience I will never forget. Forever I can say that I played at the collegiate level and not many people can say that.

Farewell ENC :)
